Compassionate Care Program (nursing) is a program that provides support and care to patients who are terminally ill. The program is designed to help patients and their families cope with the physical, emotional, and spiritual challenges of end-of-life care. The program is available to patients who are in the final stages of a terminal illness and who are unable to tolerate further medical treatment. The program is provided by a team of healthcare professionals, including nurses, doctors, social workers, and chaplains.
